A youth group from St Mary's Kirkland has teamed with a group of adults from St. George's, St Anne de Bellevue, in an effort to sponsor a refugee family to begin a new life in Canada. The group recently travelled to Toronto and met with Archbishop Fred Hiltz, primate of the Anglican Church of Canada, and his wife, Lynne Samways-Hiltz. The Primate reflected on this visit during his New Year's Day address at Christ Church Cathedral in Ottawa, saying: "One of the most outstanding efforts to sponsor a family is that of a youth group in the Diocese of Montreal. Youth from St. Mary's, Kirkland and St. George's, St. Anne de Bellevue have raised almost $10,000.00 of the required $20,000 to sponsor a family. They understand refugee sponsorship as a unique expression of feeding the hungry, sheltering the homeless, welcoming new friends. They know that sponsorship represents renewed hope for a life of freedom, dignity and peace. They believe they are changing the world one family at a time."
